In the mid-1960s, he moved to the private practice of law working with a variety of law firms and as a lawyer in solo practice in the Phoenix area for 30 years. His practice was devoted primarily to commercial real estate law and personal injury disputes. When he was appointed to the bench in 1986, he became the 50th judge of the Superior Court in Maricopa County.

Based on Judge Sargeant's long career as a private lawyer dealing with civil disputes, his assignments on the Bench have focused principally on civil cases. In December, 1999, Judge Sargeant received an award for judicial excellence from the Civil Rights Committee of the Arizona Anti-Defamation League.
